

HSEMA INTERNSHIP PROGRAM

NATIONAL CAPITAL REGION THREAT INTELLIGENCE CONSORTIUM

The National Capital Region Threat Intelligence Consortium (NTIC) is the District of Columbia's fusion center. The fusion center is responsible for the receipt, analysis, and sharing of threat-related information between local, federal, and private sector partners. NTIC interns have an opportunity to help us collect and analyze data, work with stakeholders, write intelligence products, and provide briefings on the threat environment.

ABOUT HSEMA

The District of Columbia Homeland Security and Emergency Management Agency (HSEMA) manages and coordinates the District's prevention, protection, response, recovery, and mitigation efforts for all disasters occurring in DC.

INTERNSHIP EXPERIENCE

HSEMA is seeking highly-skilled graduate and undergraduate students interested in homeland security and emergency management. Interns are exposed to a unique and dynamic environment showcasing governmental and nongovernmental coordination.

HSEMA is leading the District's COVID-19 response and recovery efforts in coordination with DC Health. The Spring 2021 cohort will support the District's COVID operations and aid in steady-state emergency management and homeland security initiatives. Interns will work alongside local, state and federal partners, participate in exercises and training opportunities, and support activations of the District's Emergency Operations Center (EOC). Through the internship program, interns will be able to expand their network and grow as professionals. Successful candidates will be expected to demonstrate professionalism, timeliness, effective communication and enthusiasm for learning.

Internship Start Date:

Monday, May 16, 2022
