Meeting began at approximately 10:00 pm.

David Heyman, Homeland Security Commission Chair, called the meeting to order. On the 19th anniversary of Columbine, the Commission took a moment of silence to honor and remember the victims. David Heyman also recognized the walkout for students and children who would like to address issues of gun violence in the United States.

The Chair called for a vote to close the meeting and members unanimously voted in favor. End of open meeting recording.

Note: Two members of the public were present, and were asked to leave upon closing of the meeting.

There was a vote held to reopen the meeting to the public at 11:56 am.

The Commissioners unanimously voted to reopen to the public. The new recording started.

Note: No members of the public were present.

David Heyman called the meeting to a close.
