Meeting began at approximately 2:30 pm.

David Heyman, Homeland Security Commission Chair, called the meeting to order. He noted it was Monday, August 20, 2018 at 2:40 pm. He noted for the record there were four Commissioners present including himself, Brad Belzak, Meloyde Batten-Mickens and Susan Reinertson. There was a chance Phil McNamara would be joining by phone, but he was on travel and his service was spotty. David Heyman mentioned it has been a rainy summer in D.C. and there has been some severe weather. The Commission has had a busy summer with many meetings, including with OCTO and WMATA. The Commission is working on the report and study on cybersecurity. There is no public presence and all Commissioners unanimously vote to close the meeting.

End of open meeting recording.

The Commission voted to reopen the meeting to the public at 4:29 pm.

David Heyman noted the meeting was open to the public, a new recording started, and the Commission ended the meeting.

Note: No members of the public were present.
